STIPULATION AND ORDER BETWEEN THE EXAMINER AND ABN AMRO INC.

This Stipulation (the “Stipulation” or “Protective Order”) is entered into by and between the undersigned counsel, acting for and on behalf of their respective clients: (a) Anton R. Valukas, Esq., in his capacity as Examiner (as defined below) appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases (as defined below) of Lehman Brothers Holdings, Inc. and its affiliated debtors and debtors-in-possession (the “Debtors”) in the Chapter 11 Cases, and (b) ABN AMRO Inc. (“ABN AMRO”).

WHEREAS, commencing on September 15, 2008 (“Commencement Date”), the Debtors commenced voluntary cases (“Chapter 11 Cases”) under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the “Bankruptcy Court”), and the Debtors are authorized to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code;

WHEREAS, on January 16, 2009, the Bankruptcy Court entered an Order Directing the Appointment of an Examiner Pursuant to Section 1104(c)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code (the “Examiner Order”), and the Examiner Order, inter alia, ordered (i) the United States

Trustee for the Southern District of New York (the “U.S. Trustee”) to appoint an examiner (the “Examiner”), and (ii) the Examiner to conduct an investigation into certain specified matters and to perform the duties set forth in sections 1106(a)(3) and (4) of the Bankruptcy Code (collectively, and as may be amended and/or supplemented by a Bankruptcy Court order, the “Examiner Investigation”);

WHEREAS, on January 19, 2009, pursuant to the Examiner Order, the U.S. Trustee appointed Anton R. Valukas as Examiner and the Bankruptcy Court approved the appointment by Order dated January 20, 2009;

WHEREAS, the Examiner has requested that ABN AMRO produce certain documents and provide information relevant to the Examiner Investigation (all documents and information provided by ABN AMRO to the Examiner, the “Discovery Materials”);

WHEREAS, ABN AMRO has requested, and the Examiner has agreed, that certain Discovery Materials be subject to a protective order, pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7026, to protect the confidentiality of sensitive information; and

WHEREAS, the Examiner and ABN AMRO have entered into this Stipulation and agreed to be bound by its terms;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED, AGREED, AND UPON COURT APPROVAL HEREOF, IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. ABN AMRO may designate as “Highly Confidential” that portion of any Discovery Material that ABN AMRO in good faith believes meets any of the criteria in subparagraphs (a) - (g) below, provided that “Highly Confidential” information shall not include: information that is at any time independently developed by the Examiner without use of or reliance upon any of

ABN AMRO's Discovery Material; information rightfully acquired by the Examiner from an independent source without restrictions as to use; information that was, prior to disclosure, rightfully in the possession or knowledge of the Examiner; information that is publicly available in substantially the same form in which it was provided by ABN AMRO; information that is required by law to be made available to third parties; information that was, is or becomes public knowledge, not in violation of this Protective Order; or information that is voluntarily de-designated by ABN AMRO. Subject to these conditions and limitations, ABN AMRO may designate the following as "Highly Confidential":

(a) information that identifies specific securities, loans, instruments or other property now or previously held, maintained or possessed by ABN AMRO or any of its customers and which is not related to the Debtors, except that ABN AMRO may designate as "Highly Confidential" information that identifies specific securities, loans, instruments or other property of or formerly of the Debtors that is currently held, maintained or possessed by ABN AMRO;

(b) information that identifies and specifically relates to current or former customers of ABN AMRO other than the Debtors, including, without limitation, matters pertaining to such customers' accounts, credit exposure, appraisals, financial condition or valuations;

(c) information concerning employee and executive compensation;

(d) information that reveals ABN AMRO's methodology in regard to risk-rating, valuation or other forms of financial or credit analysis or that is otherwise of a proprietary and competitively-sensitive nature;

(e) information that is of a personal or intimate nature regarding any individual that will cause undue harm to the reputation of or embarrassment to the individual;

(f) information that ABN AMRO is required by law or regulation to protect from disclosure; or

(g) any other category of information hereinafter given “Highly Confidential” status by agreement of the Examiner or further Order of the Court.

2. ABN AMRO may designate as “Confidential” that portion of any Discovery Material that ABN AMRO in good faith believes meets any of the following criteria in subparagraph (a) below, provided that “Confidential” information shall not include: information that is at any time independently developed by the Examiner without use of or reliance upon any of ABN AMRO’s Discovery Material; information rightfully acquired by the Examiner from an independent source without restrictions as to use; information that was, prior to disclosure, rightfully in the possession or knowledge of the Examiner; information that is publicly available in substantially the same form in which it was provided by ABN AMRO; information that is required by law to be made available to third parties; information that was, is or becomes public knowledge, not in violation of this Protective Order; or information that is voluntarily de-designated by ABN AMRO. Subject to these conditions and limitations, ABN AMRO may designate the following as “Confidential”:

(a) any other category of information hereinafter given “Confidential” status by agreement of the Examiner or further Order of the Court.

3. ABN AMRO may designate Discovery Material as Confidential or Highly Confidential by applying the applicable legend to the Discovery Material. In the case of data stored in electronic form, the applicable legend, if any, shall be printed on the cover or container of the disk, tape, or other medium in which the electronic form data is stored.

4. Discovery Materials that have been designated Highly Confidential shall be maintained in confidence and shall not be shared by the Examiner with any person other than: (i) persons who have already seen or received the document at issue; (ii) Jenner & Block, in its capacity as counsel to the Examiner, including Jenner & Block attorneys, legal assistants, paralegals, secretarial, and other staff; (iii) professional firms or persons, including their staff, as are retained by the Examiner to provide specialized advice in connection with the Examiner Investigation, and including Duff & Phelps; (iv) outside vendors such as copy services or document management vendors used by the Examiner; (v) the Bankruptcy Court (in accordance with paragraph 8); and (vi) other persons upon further order of the Court or consent of ABN AMRO. In the event the Examiner in good faith believes that providing Highly Confidential materials to a witness or other person providing information to the Examiner would assist the Examiner in carrying out his duties, the Examiner shall provide notice to ABN AMRO of the materials he seeks to use (except with respect to interviews of persons who have lawfully already seen or received the document at issue, provided that no other parties are present at the interview), and the parties shall use their best efforts within five business days to allow the use of such material while protecting ABN AMRO's need for confidentiality, including, but not limited to, considering whether portions of such material can be redacted, re-evaluating whether such material must be protected as "Highly Confidential," or considering other provisions to allow the Examiner to carry out his duties while protecting the confidentiality of ABN AMRO information. In the event the Examiner and ABN AMRO cannot resolve an issue concerning the use of "Highly Confidential" information, the matter may be presented to the Bankruptcy Court for resolution on an expedited basis.

5. Discovery Materials that have been designated Confidential (but not Highly Confidential) may be shown to any of the individuals or entities identified in paragraph 4, as well as to witnesses or other persons who are providing information to the Examiner in connection with the Examiner Investigation (without providing notice to ABN AMRO) provided that counsel for the Examiner has provided such person with a copy of this Protective Order and such person has executed a Non-Disclosure Declaration in the form annexed as an Exhibit hereto. If Confidential or Highly Confidential materials are utilized in a deposition or other recorded interview, then it shall be indicated on the record by counsel for the Examiner (or, if counsel for ABN AMRO is present, by counsel for ABN AMRO) that a question, or a line of questioning concerning a particular subject matter, calls for Confidential or Highly Confidential information, in which case the transcript of the designated testimony shall be bound in a separate volume and marked "Confidential Information Governed by Protective Order" by the reporter.

6. Counsel for the Examiner shall provide a copy of this Protective Order to a representative of any professional firm or individual other than Jenner & Block who is retained by the Examiner (including all entities and individuals identified in paragraph 4(i)(iii)(iv) and (vi)), and the firm representative or individual, as the case may be, must execute a Non-Disclosure Declaration in the form annexed as an Exhibit hereto prior to the firm or individual receiving any Highly Confidential or Confidential information.

7. If at any time ABN AMRO determines or realizes that certain testimony or some portion(s) of Discovery Material that it previously produced should be designated as Confidential or Highly Confidential, ABN AMRO may apprise the Examiner in writing, and such designated testimony or portion(s) of Discovery Material will thereafter be treated as Confidential or Highly Confidential under the terms of this Agreement, provided, however, that ABN AMRO shall, at its cost, provide the Examiner with substitute copies, bearing the appropriate legend, of any such Discovery Material.

8. All Confidential and Highly Confidential information filed with the Bankruptcy Court, and all portions of pleadings, motions or other papers filed with the Bankruptcy Court that disclose such Confidential or Highly Confidential Discovery Material, shall be filed under seal with the Clerk of the Court and kept under seal until further order of the Bankruptcy Court.

9. In the event the Examiner objects to any designation of testimony or Discovery Materials as Confidential or Highly Confidential, the Examiner shall so inform ABN AMRO, stating the grounds of the objection, and the parties shall have seven business days to attempt to resolve the Examiner's objection, at the end of which the Examiner may seek a ruling from the Bankruptcy Court that such information should not be treated as Confidential or Highly Confidential, provided that no Confidential or Highly Confidential information shall be filed in the public record prior to such a determination by the Court, and provided further that the burden shall be on ABN AMRO to justify the claim that disputed material has been properly designated.

10. In the event the Examiner is required by law to provide Confidential or Highly Confidential material to any third party, the Examiner shall first provide prompt prior written notice to counsel for ABN AMRO and ABN AMRO shall be given a reasonable opportunity to seek protection from a court.

11. If information subject to a claim of attorney-client privilege, protection under the attorney work product doctrine, or any other privilege or immunity ("Privileged Information") is advertently produced to the Examiner, such production shall in no way prejudice or otherwise constitute a waiver of, or estoppel as to, any claim of privilege or other ground for withholding production to which ABN AMRO would otherwise be entitled. If the Examiner receives a claim of inadvertent production of Privileged Information, the Examiner shall promptly return such Privileged Information to ABN AMRO. In addition, the Examiner shall destroy all notes or work product reflecting the content of such Privileged Information, and shall not use such Privileged Information, or the information contained therein, for any purpose.

12. ABN AMRO and its affiliates reserve all their rights and defenses including, without limitation, rights and defenses with respect to jurisdiction and the scope of the examination. Likewise, the Examiner reserves all of his rights and available contentions with respect to the request made to ABN AMRO and to any defense or contention that ABN AMRO may raise. The disclosure of any information pursuant to this stipulation is without prejudice to, and will not constitute a waiver of any such right or defense.

13. This Protective Order shall survive the termination of the Examiner Investigation. Within 30 days after the termination of the Examiner Investigation and the Chapter 11 Cases (and all appeals therefrom), all Highly Confidential or Confidential information and all copies thereof shall be promptly returned to the Producing Party, or, upon permission of the Producing Party, destroyed, provided however, that: (i) each party may retain a complete file as served or filed with the Court in the Chapter 11 Cases; (ii) the attorneys for the Examiner may retain materials which, in their judgment, constitute or are a part of their work product; and (iii) all Highly Confidential or Confidential information not returned or destroyed shall remain in all respects subject to the terms and provisions of this Protective Order.
